Saturday, May 1, 2010 11:00 am

Landon School, 6101 Wilson Lane, Bethesda, MD

All decorations welcomed, elaborate or simple.

Toting your toddlers?! Come out and be part of Landon's first annual community parade where babies and toddlers in decked-out strollers will steal the show. The top three entries will win a prize for your decorating efforts.

It's simple! Decorate a stroller, baby carriage, or wagon, and walk in the parade! Bands, balloons, antique cars, dancers are all part of our lively community parade to kick off the Landon Azalea Garden Festival. Circling the paved road on campus, the parade is about a 15-minute walk. Following the parade, stay and enjoy the children's inflatables, face painting, kid's FunLand, food, vendors, Azaleas, plants, and more!

So start decorating! On the the day of the event, please park first and then report to the Parade volunteers stationed at the Landon guard house at 10:45am.
